Hannah began performing at the age of 14 which ultimately led her on her journey to Dallas/Fort Worth where in 2011 she auditioned for the first season of The Glee Project, a reality-TV competition where contestants vie for a recurring spot on the hit television series Glee. After intense competition, Hannah finished fifth. Realizing her dream to pursue acting and singing full time, Hannah moved to Los Angeles. Besides her talent for singing, Hannah can also rap (under the alias Rouge), which illustrates her sincere quirkiness and positive attitude. Currently, Hannah travels across the country speaking at different universities about "True Beauty," a program designed to empower young people about self-image and self-esteem.
